As an EXECUTIVE, I will position your Castle to get it SOLD.

Marketing for you

It is important to give your home the most exposure possible. The key is to use multiple streams of influence using the power of the NWMLS, word-of-mouth marketing, social spheres, online and print marketing in addition to my local, regional, national and global reach. I will put together a custom marketing plan so we target the right buyers for your Castle. My plan integrates traditional, proven methods with progressive modern methods all with one strategic purpose – getting your Castle SOLD.

Your Listing

As a REALTOR®, I will post your Castle on the Northwest Multiple Listing Service (NWMLS), making it available to thousands of other REALTORS® in our city, state, across the country and around the world. I will also access all of the REALTORS® in my office and in our surrounding areas leveraging my sphere of influence.

Our Communication

Once we have listed your castle and created the maximum opportunity for exposure, emphasis turns to servicing the interested buyers and their REALTORS®. Prospective home buyers and their REALTORS® can reach me through a wide variety of communication modes around the clock – mobile phone, voicemail, answering service, office attendant, text messaging, instant messaging, the internet and email – all enabling me to quickly respond to interested parties.
